National Education Policy (NEP) 2020

The National Education Policy NEP 2020 states that pedagogy must evolve to make education more experiential, holistic, integrated, inquiry- driven, learner-centred, and flexible. The policy envisions the curricular structures to enable creative combinations for study that would offer multiple entry and exit points removing the rigid boundaries of disciplines and creating new possibilities of lifelong learning and evolve interdisciplinary thinking. In view of the mandate of NEP it is required of the institution to prepare itself to implement it through the institutional mechanism of the college.

In this regard, the Internal Quality Assurance cell (IQAC) of the Kamala Nehru College organized a two-day national webinar on the topic National Education Policy 2022 in collaboration with Siksha Sanskriti Utthan Nyas, 10th – 11th December 2021.

Report of the Event

The session 1 of the day 1 begun with inaugural address by the esteemed coordinator of the IQAC Dr. Renu. The first session of the two-day Webinar was addressed by Chairman of the collaborating organization Shri Devender Singh ji, Shiksha Sanskriti Utthan Nyas. Shri Devender ji highlighted the need of revised curriculum in higher education to incorporate elements of indigenous knowledge base to explore the solution-oriented syllabus and to bring the faculty fraternity on a common platform to meet the common goal of education.

Followed by the inaugural address, esteemed principal, and the chairperson of the IQAC – Prof. Kalpana Bhakuni welcomed the audience in the two-day national webinar. Prof. Bhakuni presented a brief idea about the documented policies of the National Education Policy 2021 directed towards transformation of the education system keeping the importance of demographic profile and aspirations of the young population in educational policies.

The first session By Prof. Dr. Padmavathi B S, Head , Centre for Educational and Social Studies, an awardee of prestigious awards from international bodies and contributor in the state education policies, NGOs in the educational domain and rich academic resources. Prof Padmavati urged the need to revisit the course curricula of higher education to suit the pursuits of emerging higher educational needs through bringing the stakeholders' thought processes on common platform to redesign the policy. She focussed on implementation part of the proposed policy by introducing the roles of UGC RUSA, NPIU, TEQIP as part of strategic Institutional Development Plans (IDP), components to be included in IDP of the Higher Educational Institutions (HEI) within the framework of NEP recommendations. Some of the important components emphasised were curriculum improvement, funding of topic centered clubs and activities organized by students, initiatives of Academic Bank Credit and Teachers capacity Building (FDP's) etc and making the same accessible and equitable. The wholistic presentation further covered the strategic steps and guidelines towards implementing the NEP recommendations in HEIs.

The first Session ended with an announcement to follow-up the second session of the first day

In the second session of the first day of the webinar, Prof , Dayashankar Tiwary, delivered a talk on the topic " Rastriya Siksha Niti 2020 mai Sanskrit ki Bhumika" (Role of Sanskrit in the National Education Policy 2020). Dr. Tiwary emphasized on the role of multilingual pedagogy in the education system including the regional languages. Sanskrit being the third most important language shall be made multidisciplinary to establish it as professional course and further as a medium to connect Vedic knowledge with the tenets of the core science and social science disciplines including the purse sciences such as engineering and mathematics. The provision of financial assistance to the discipline is required for development of the larger targets. Dr Tiwary urged for a larger endeavour towards translation of the Vedic knowledge for which Institutions shall establish specialized centres. He also pointed out the provision of financial assistance towards meeting the goal of making the discipline not just as a language but also as a capability to be suitable for the professional and career pursuits.

The participants raised several queries during the question-and-answer session such as focussing the measures to be taken towards connecting the Higher education with Secondary and Senior secondary school education.

The session ended with endorsing remarks and need to develop adequate infrastructure and technology in HEI for promotion of Sanskrit as a professional program by Prof. Kalpana Bhakuni. The session ended with vote of thanks by the IQAC coordinator.

Report on Multidisciplinary National Conference

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell of Kamala Nehru College in collaboration with National Water Mission, Ministry of Jal Shakti, Government of India held a two-day Multidisciplinary National Conference on the topic “Investing in our Water Future: Opportunities and Challenges” on the 9th and 10th March, 2021 on virtual mode. The Conference sought to address the problems related to water scarcity and mismanagement and its critical role for future sustainability of life. It stressed upon the need to find creative, sustainable and equitable solution to conserve this precious resource. The Conference was addressed by a distinguished panel of experts from academia, industry and the government. The inaugural address was delivered by Dr. Kalpana Bhakuni, Principal, Kamala Nehru College. The keynote speech was delivered by Shri Suneel Kumar Arora, Advisor, NWM who spoke on the significance of rainwater harvesting particularly the flagship programme of NWM “Catch the Rain” Campaign. The other panellists were Mr. Tejdeep Singh, Scientist, NWM, Mr. Qazi Wamiq Ali, Consultant, NWM, Mr Manu Bhatnagar, Principal Director, INTACH, Professor Krishna Achuta Rao, IIT-Delhi, Ms Shreya Shekar, Young Professional NWM. The sessions proved to be very informative and engaging. Each session was followed by Q&A session, which helped to clarify the doubts of the participants and gave them an in-depth understanding of the issues at hand.

There were two technical sessions where faculty members of the College presented their research papers on the theme; relating it to their respective disciplines. The topics included water conservation methods; sanitation and wastewater treatment; river water sharing; reportage of water crisis and its depiction in media, films and literature; philosophical reflections on water and so on.

The event was attended by more than 300 academicians, researchers and students belonging to public and private institutions from across India. The wide participation ensured that the objectives and aims of the Conference were effectively deliberated upon and the message of water conservation was successfully delivered to the intended audience. The heightened awareness that was generated would go a long way to ensure the sustainable use of water in the future.

Faculty Development Programme
Emotional Intelligence Organized BY IQAC

in Collaboration with ICT ACADEMY, Chennai Tamil Nadu, India

on

13 May 2020-19 May 2020

https://www.knc.edu.in/document/FDP_brochure.pdf

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of Kamala Nehru College organized a pioneering online Faculty Development Programme (FDP) in collaboration with ICT Academy. The subject of the FDP was "Emotional Intelligence".

The online live FDP was conducted by Mr Sunil Borah (Senior Trainer, Training and Research) and Mr Jino Jose (Deputy Manager, Training and Research) from ICT Academy. The FDP was held from 13 May 2020 to 19 May 2020 for a total duration of eight hours. The objective of the course was to understand the significance of Emotional Intelligence at workplace and learn how to improve and apply Emotional intelligence at work and to allow faculty members to become emotionally intelligent personally and professionally.

The training was conducted online daily from 11- 12:30 P.M on the Cisco Webex platform. The training modules consisted of interactive sessions with the trainers and daily polls to ascertain the level of understanding of the participants. The FDP was concluded with a vote of thanks from the trainers and the IQAC coordinator Dr Renu Bali. The principal, Dr Kalpana Bhakuni encouraged and congratulated the participants, trainers and organizers of the FDP. The FDP was completed successfully by 61 faculty members from various departments of the college. Certificates of participation were downloaded successfully by the faculty members from the ICT Academy website.

Overview of the Course (as per the leaflet provided by ICT academy)

Emotional Intelligence (EI) is the ability to identify, assess, and control the emotions of oneself, of others, and of groups. We observe that the supposedly brilliant and well-educated people struggle to accomplish great things. We have seen that there are always those brilliant in the workplace, the ones who inspire others and seem to provide the momentum for the entire team. What makes great leaders truly extraordinary is not necessarily their IQ, but their EQ. Not education; neither experience nor knowledge completes the skill set required. Then what is it? It is almost always this concept called emotional intelligence.

Emotional Intelligence is so critical to success that it accounts for 58 percent of performance in all types of jobs says research. Here is a workshop on Emotional intelligence that would help professionals, perform better, build lasting business relationships and serve the clients better.

Who is this Course for?

- College faculty who wants to improve their EQ
- Faculties who are not able to control their emotions in class
- Faculties who are not able to control student emotions in class

Course Objective

- On successful completion of the course, participants should be able to:
- To understand the significance of EI at workplace, and learn how to improve and apply Emotional intelligence at work

Workshops on Introduction to Digital platforms for Online Teaching and College Activities

Pandemic of Covid-19 brought a major shift in the education system as the teaching learning process was imparted on the online mode. Despite the unprecedented situation worldwide, with the consistent efforts of teaching community, optimum utilization of various online resources and the IT infrastructure, the teaching-learning process in the college did not face a slowdown. Rather, the creation of online study material on Google classrooms, regular online meetings, lecture series on teams, group discussions, and continuous research contributions using digital platforms helped in the enhancement of the knowledge base of the students as the prime stakeholder. In this regard, the IQAC organized two sessions to introduce digital software packages to carry forward the teaching and college activities during the lockdown phases with an intent to blend the same with offline teachings later

One Day Workshop on Workshop on G - Suite and Google App

by Dr Thiyagu Suriya, School of Education, Central University, Kerala.

August 4, 2020; 3:00 PM

<https://www.knc.edu.in/document/4thaug.jpeg>

in the second phase, IQAC organized a workshop on G- Suite and Google Apps with invited trainer Dr. Thiyagu Suriya, Department of Education, School of Education (SEd), Central University of Kerela.

The Session covered various dimensions of organizing teaching through google Apps. The Google classroom, management of study materials, scheduling interactive lectures through integrating the scheduling of classes with Google calendar, managing assignments and assessments, to upload learning materials – linking video tutorials, PowerPoint presentations, E resources etc. A Realtime hand-on exercise helped the faculty members to create a few tasks and raise their queries

A total 140 Faculty members joined the workshop. The question-and-answer session indicated towards an appreciable response from the faculty fraternity towards adoption of the google apps as online teaching modules.

Outcome

With the beginning of the new academic session in the month of August 2020, for interactive virtual classroom sessions, the college subscribed to the G-Suite package for the normal 'classroom' teaching. For other academic needs, communication technology such as 'Zoom' and specialized G-suite packages are subscribed for online seminars, webinars, etc to accommodate a larger number of participants.

- Dr. Toolika Gupta, along with the steering committee updated progress pertaining to their work towards NAAC with regards to IIQA and SSR (Cycle 1). The Paramarsh team also was familiarized with the College and the journey so far since its inception in 1995. The Indian Institute of Crafts & Design, Jaipur, was set up as an autonomous institute by the Government of Rajasthan in the year 1995 to act as a catalyst of change in the craft sector. IICD provides Bachelor and Master degree in various areas of Crafts & design.
- It was informed that IICD envisions to invigorate the craft sector and to become the Centre of Excellence in Crafts & Design, encouraging research and bringing new life to the languishing crafts of India.
- Dr. Bhakuni wanted that the institute should be first seen so that we are left with enough time for discussion and question/answer session.
- The KNC team was taken around the college and were shown the infrastructure of the institute. The craft workshops, hostel, faculty room etc. were visited and it was informed that hands on training was given to the students.
- Dr. Bhakuni suggested that appropriate signages to be put up in the building.
- In the evening the IQAC members of IICD were addressed by Dr. Kalpana Bhakuni. She gave a road map of the NAAC procedure including IIQA and the SSR.
- She recommended to take up registration under AISHE and other technical aspects related to NAAC before filling up the SSR.
- Dr. Bhakuni highlighted on the relevance of new initiatives to be undertaken such as research grants to be acquired and publications of the faculty to be encouraged, extension and outreach programs as essential activities, the need for Green Audit, Academic and Administrative Audit, in-house journal with ISSN number (preferably UGC-Care listed), Incubation Cell, E-Governance and other such initiatives.

Report of the Visit to Indian Institute of Crafts and Design, Jaipur 21- 22 December 2020 (continued)

- It was also advised to take up initiatives on waste-management, E-waste and water harvesting.
- They were suggested to provide support to the students during the Covid period either through data card for online classes.
- The IQAC Core member Ms.Vinita Malik suggested the significance of identifying the weak areas as a way ahead to achieve the goals.
- Dr. Barun Shankar Gupta, Coordinator IQAC, IICD (Convener NAAC Steering Committee) presented a progress report regarding NAAC for the benefit of the Paramarsh team and the other members present so that they could be further assessed and guided in preparation for NAAC.
- Questions were raised to the Mentor College (KNC) visiting team for the benefit of the Mentee institute (IICD) for NAAC and SSR Preparation.
- Query was raised by the IICD team as how to showcase the Publications during the Peer Team Visit.
- To initiate the process Dr. Bhakuni suggested to create Criterion Heads and then the extended team to collate the data. Ms. Harpreet further added that the google sheets and forms to be circulated to collect data.
- Question was raised in context of the documentation of the financial data by the Mentee college. It was suggested to collate the information of the assessment period and should also be showcased at the time of Peer Team Visit if asked for.
- Discussions were done even pertaining to Alumni contributions and participation.
- A very interactive session was held between the members of IICD and the KNC visiting team where various queries and concerns were raised pertaining to NAAC- all of which were answered in detail by Director/Principal and the Paramarsh team.
- The interactive session ended with a vote of thanks by the IQAC Coordinator IICD.
