National Education Policy (NEP) 2020 The National Education Policy NEP 2020 states that pedagogy must evolve to make education more experiential, holistic, integrated, inquiry-driven, learner-centred, and flexible. The policy envisions the curricular structures to enable creative combinations for study that would offer multiple entry and exit points removing the rigid boundaries of disciplines and creating new possibilities of lifelong learning and evolve interdisciplinary thinking. In view of the mandate of NEP it is required of the institution to prepare itself to implement it through the institutional mechanism of the college.

In this regard, the Internal Quality Assurance cell (IQAC) of the kamala Nehru College organized a two-day national webinar on the topic National Education Policy 2022 in collaboration with Siksha Sanskriti Utthan Nyas, 10th – 11th December 2021.

Report of the Event

The session 1 of the day 1 begun with inaugural address by the esteemed coordinator of the IQAC Dr. Renu. The first session of the two-day Webinar was addressed by Chairman of the collaborating organization Shri Devender Singh ji, Shiksha Sanskriti Utthan Nyas. Shri Devender ji highlighted the need of revised curriculum in higher education to incorporate elements of indigenous knowledge base to explore the solution-oriented syllabus and to bring the faculty fraternity on a common platform to meet the common goal of education.

Followed by the inaugural address, esteemed principal, and the chairperson of the IQAC – Prof. Kalpana Bhakuni welcomed the audience in the two-day national webinar. Prof. Bhakuni presented a brief idea about the documented policies of the National Education Policy 2021 directed towards transformation of the education system keeping the importance of demographic profile and aspirations of the young population in educational policies.

The first session By Prof. Dr. Padmavathi B S, Head , Centre for Educational and Social Studies, an awardee of prestigious awards from international bodies and contributor in the state education policies, NGOs in the educational domain and rich academic resources. Prof Padmavati urged the need to revisit the course curricula of higher education to suit the pursuits of emerging higher educational needs through bringing the stakeholders' thought processes on common platform to redesign the policy. She focussed on implementation part of the proposed policy by introducing the roles of UGC RUSA, NPIU, TEQIP as part of strategic Institutional Development Plans (IDP), components to be included in IDP of the Higher Educational Institutions (HEI) within the framework of NEP recommendations. Some of the important components emphasised were curriculum improvement, funding of topic cantered clubs and activities organized by students, initiatives of Academic Bank Credit and Teachers capacity Building (FDP's) etc and making the same accessible and equitable. The wholistic presentation further covered the strategic steps and guidelines towards implementing the NEP recommendations in HEIs.

The first Session ended with an announcement to follow-up the second session of the first day

In the second session of the first day of the webinar, Prof , Dayashankar Tiwary, delivered a talk on the topic " Rastriya Siksha Niti 2020 mai Sanskrit ki Bhumika" (Role of Sanskrit in the National Education Policy 2020). Dr. Tiwary emphasized on the role of multilingual pedagogy in the education system including the regional languages. Sanskrit being the third most important language shall be made multidisciplinary to establish it as professional course and further as a medium to connect Vedic knowledge with the tenets of the core science and social science disciplines including the purse sciences such as engineering and mathematics. The provision of financial assistance to the discipline is required for development of the larger targets. Dr Tiwary urged for a larger endeavour towards translation of the Vedic knowledge for which Institutions shall establish specialized centres. He also pointed out the provision of financial assistance towards meeting the goal of making the discipline not just as a language but also as a capability to be suitable for the professional and career pursuits.

The participants raised several queries during the question-and-answer session such as focussing the measures to be taken towards connecting the Higher education with Secondary and Senior secondary school education.

The session ended with endorsing remarks and need to develop adequate infrastructure and technology in HEI for promotion of Sanskrit as a professional program by Prof. Kalpana Bhakuni. The session ended with vote of thanks by the IQAC coordinator.

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of Kamala Nehru College organized a pioneering online Faculty Development Programme (FDP) in collaboration with ICT Academy. The subject of the FDP was "Emotional Intelligence".

The online live FDP was conducted by Mr Sunil Borah (Senior Trainer, Training and Research) and Mr Jino Jose (Deputy Manager, Training and Research) from ICT Academy. The FDP was held from 13 May 2020 to 19 May 2020 for a total duration of eight hours. The objective of the course was to understand the significance of Emotional Intelligence at workplace and learn how to improve and apply Emotional intelligence at work and to allow faculty members to become emotionally intelligent personally and professionally.

The training was conducted online daily from 11- 12:30 P.M on the Cisco Webex platform. The training modules consisted of interactive sessions with the trainers and daily polls to ascertain the level of understanding of the participants. The FDP was concluded with a vote of thanks from the trainers and the IQAC coordinator Dr Renu Bali. The principal, Dr Kalpana Bhakuni encouraged and congratulated the participants, trainers and organizers of the FDP. The FDP was completed successfully by 61 faculty members from various departments of the college. Certificates of participation were downloaded successfully by the faculty members from the ICT Academy website.

Overview of the Course (as per the leaflet provided by ICT academy)

Emotional Intelligence (EI) is the ability to identify, assess, and control the emotions of oneself, of others, and of groups. We observe that the supposedly brilliant and well-educated people struggle to accomplish great things. We have seen that there are always those brilliant in the workplace, the ones who inspire others and seem to provide the momentum for the entire team. What makes great leaders truly extraordinary is not necessarily their IQ, but their EQ Not education; neither experience nor knowledge completes the skill set required. Then what is it? It is almost always this concept called emotional intelligence.

Emotional Intelligence is so critical to success that it accounts for 58 percent of performance in all types of jobs says research. Here is a workshop on Emotional

Workshops on Introduction to Digital platforms for Online Teaching and College Activities

Pandemic of Covid-19 brought a major shift in the education system as the teaching learning process was imparted on the online mode. Despite the unprecedented situation worldwide, with the consistent efforts of teaching community, optimum utilization of various online resources and the IT infrastructure, the teaching-learning process in the college did not face a slowdown. Rather, the creation of online study material on Google classrooms, regular online meetings, lecture series on teams, group discussions, and continuous research contributions using digital platforms helped in the enhancement of the knowledge base of the students as the prime stakeholder. In this regard, th IQAC organized two sessions to introduce digital software packages to carry forward the teaching and college activities during the lockdown phases with an intent to blend the same with offline teachings later by Dr Thiyagu Suriya, School of Education, Central University, Kerala.

August 4, 2020; 3:00 PM

https://www.knc.edu.in/document/4thaug.jpeg

in the second phase, IQAC organized a workshop on G- Suite and Google Apps with invited trainer Dr. Thiyagu Suriya, Department of Education, School of Education (SEd), Central University of Kerela.
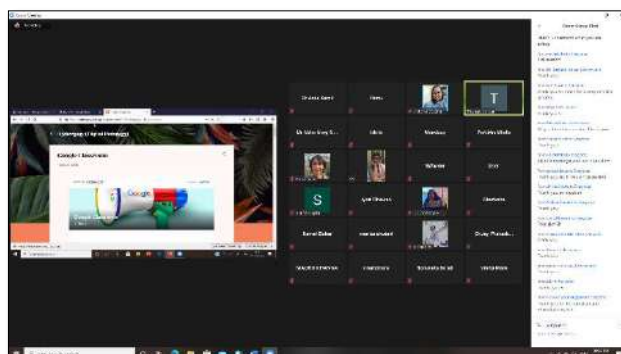

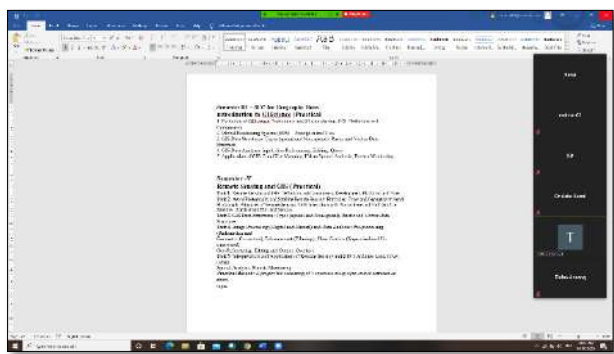

The Session covered various dimensions of organizing teaching through google Apps. The Google classroom, management of study materials, scheduling interactive lectures through integrating the scheduling of classes with Google calendar, managing assignments and assessments, to upload learning materials – linking video tutorials, PowerPoint presentations, E resources etc. A Realtime hand-on exercise helped the faculty members to create a few tasks and raise their queries

A total 140 Faculty members joined the workshop. The question-and-answer session indicated towards an appreciable response from the faculty fraternity towards adoption of the google apps as online teaching modules.

Outcome

With the beginning of the new academic session in the month of August 2020, for interactive virtual classroom sessions, the college subscribed to the G-Suite package for the normal 'classroom' teaching. For other academic needs, communication technology such as 'Zoom' and specialized G-suite packages are subscribed for online seminars, webinars, etc to accommodate a larger number of participants.
