

Report 2015

The Department of Philosophy organised Eidos, the annual departmental festival, on 27th March 2015 with Prof. Bindu Puri (Department of Philosophy, University of Delhi) and Prof. Jalalul Haq (Department of Philosophy, Aligarh Muslim University) as speakers. Prof. Puri spoke on 'Gandhi, Tagore and Ambedkar: Philosophical Concerns and Overlapping Debates', and Prof. Haq delivered his lecture on 'Postmodernism: A Philosophical Overview'. Students participated in paper reading competition on the topics: 'Role of Religion in Promoting Social Well-Being' and 'Ethical Considerations of Animal Use for Food'.

On 10th September 2015, we organised Radhakrishnan Memorial Lecture with Prof. Bindu Puri (Department of Philosophy, University of Delhi) as the speaker. Prof. Puri addressed the students and faculty on 'Gandhi and Indian Tradition'. Another lecture was organised on 27th January 2016 with Prof. P. Kesava Kumar (Department of Philosophy, University of Delhi) as the speaker. The topic of the lecture was 'Critical Philosophical Traditions in India'.