Adagio is the choreography society of Kamala Nehru College. It performs choreographies which are thematic in nature and the themes usually address social issues of relevance. Last year, Adagio performed "The Onlooker" choreographed by Somya Kautia. It highlighted how onlooking a crime is as bad as committing the crime, and how we should step in and help wherever we can. With this piece, the team stood second at the annual fest of Hansraj College, SRCC and Kirori Mal College.
