

Activities 2017

ENIGMA - The Western Dance Society of Kamala Nehru College salutes the essence of womanhood, amalgamating it with dance. It brings together individual with different dance forms but one passion.

Every year, Enigma participates in more than 60 inter-college dance competitions at national and university level. The team over the years has successfully managed to create a place in the Delhi Dance Circuit by being named amongst the Top 5 Western Dance Societies of Delhi University.

Over the years it has brought many laurels to the college by winning at national and university levels. Taking this name forward, session 2016-2017 again proved to be victorious for the team.

Enigma emerged as the winner at Delhi Technological University (DTU), IMT Ghaziabad, Maulana Azad Medical College and BPIPS College. It won the Runner-up title at Ashoka University, Faculty of Management Science (FMS) Delhi, Seekshapeeth NDMC, World School of Design, Shaheed Bhagat Singh College (E), IILM, NDIM and IIT-D.

The team thrives to attain success through their hard work and passion Here they do not just believe in teaching the techniques but to engage the dancer in a soulful practice of getting inspired through this medium.

The team believes in versatility and to achieve perfection in various dance forms like house, dance hall, waacking, jazz, vogue. Members attend various dance and technique workshops of renowned choreographers like Ankit and Gourav from Big Dance Centre (BDC), Vinay Khandelwal, Nitin Theo Karketa, Sahil Aneja (Sazzie), Navya Aggarwal and many more throughout the year.

The Annual Dance Festival of Kamala Nehru College "Ol that Jazz" hosted by Enigma is one of the biggest dance festival of Delhi University. Enigma was also given the title of "BEST HOST" by Delhi Dance Circuit in 2017.