

Activities 2018

Wide Angle began the semester with a new team consisting of Namita Paul (convener), Dr. Soma Kumari (Co Convener), Sanjay Muttoo, Gaganjot Kaur and Dr. Agnitra Ghosh. An orientation was held for the student body on 1st August 2018 after which the student office bearers of Wide Angle were elected. The following Office bearers were elected: 3rd year -Deepanshi Gupta, polsc(H) and Swati Chaurasia, Journalism(H). From 2nd year- Gayatri Singh, BA Programme and Avipriya Karmakar, Sociology(H) were selected. From 1st year- KunjikaThakral, Journalism(H) and Vyakhya Seth, Journalism(H) were elected.

The first screening of the semester was held on 29 Aug 2018. The Tamil film 'Kaala' was screened and the screening was followed by a discussion led by the faculty members. A student seminar on Tamil Cinema was held on 3rd October 2018 and students presented their papers based on their research.

An excursion was organised on the 19th September 2018, to the School of Arts and Aesthetics, JNU where the students attended a panel discussion titled 'Manto then/ Manto Now'. The panel consisted of Nawazuddin Siddiqui, Nandita Das and Professor Ira Bhaskar.

On 31st October 2018 a screening of the Malyalam film 'S.Durga' was organised in collaboration with the Women's Development Cell. The screening was followed by a discussion with the producer of the film Shaji Matthew.